MTYR Jesus is calling us to live differently. The word “holy” means to be set apart. If we live for Almighty God, not only will we please our Creator, but also we will become happy. We can fulfill God’s plan and become fully human, fully alive. The teachings of Jesus in the Gospels are radical. They have been transforming people for two thousand years. Study the Gospels and allow Jesus to transform you! Then, you will share in the amazing happiness Jesus has waiting for you! You will become More Than You Realize.

Summary of Chapter 13. St. Catherine received consolation because God answered her. She had been bitter about (1) God being offended, (2) Holy Church being ravaged, and (3) her own wretchedness. God created us in His image and likeness out of love. St. Catherine says, “With unimaginable love You looked upon Your creatures within Your very self, and You fell in love with us.”
