

St. Ignatius Now Has a Blessed Exterior Bell

Now all five of our churches have interior and exterior blessed bells. Bells are used for multiple reasons. Some include: calling the people to worship, announcing that a special person is coming, or a special event has taken place. Also, blessed bells are used like any other sacramental. They are sacred signs that prepare us to receive the sacraments with better disposition. One reason the priest blesses bells is that, when the bells are rung, they “push back” demons and weaken their power. Each bell has seven psalms prayed upon them so that their words penetrate the area as the bell is rung. They are: Psalms 50, 53, 56, 66, 69, 85, and 129 from the Douay Rheims Bible. Then other blessing words by the priest include:

“God, who decreed through blessed Moses, Your servant and lawgiver, that silver trumpets should be made and be sounded at the time of sacrifice, in order to remind the people by their clear tones to prepare for Your worship and to assemble for its celebration. Grant, we pray, that this bell, destined for Your holy Church, may be hallowed + by the Holy Spirit through our lowly ministry, so that when it is tolled and rung the faithful may be invited to the house of God and to the everlasting recompense. Let the people’s faith and piety wax stronger whenever they hear its melodious peals. At its sound let all evil spirits be driven afar; let thunder and lightning, hail and storm be banished; let the power of Your hand put down the evil powers of the air, causing them to tremble at the sound of this bell, and to flee at the sight of the holy cross engraved thereon. May our Lord Himself grant this, who overcame death on the gibbet of the cross, and who now reigns in the glory of God the Father, in the unity of the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever.”

The priest sprinkles the bell with holy water and incenses it twice.

The priest eventually continues:

“O Christ, the almighty ruler, as You once calmed the storm at sea when awakened in the boat from the sleep of your human nature, so now come with Your benign help to the needs of Your people, and pour out on this bell the dew of the Holy Spirit. Whenever it rings may the enemy of the good take flight, the Christian people hear the call to faith, the empire of Satan be terrified, Your people be strengthened as they are called together in the Lord, and may the Holy Spirit be with them as He delighted to be with David when he played his harp. And as onetime thunder in the air frightened away a throng of enemies, while Samuel slew an un-weaned lamb as a holocaust to the eternal King, so when the peal of this bell resounds in the clouds may a legion of angels stand watch over the assembly of Your Church, the first-fruits of the faithful, and afford your ever-abiding protection to them in body and spirit. We ask this through You, Jesus Christ, who live and reign with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.”

Each bell was named. The bell at St. Ignatius is called St. Juan Diego; at St. Peter, St. Dymphna, at St. Bernard, St. Benedict; at St. Anne, St. Gabriel; and at Our Lady of the Snow, St. Michael.

Stay Focused on God and Worship Him Alone

Parts of the second reading (Gal 5) for this weekend include:

“For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love...I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want.”

We need to order our desires and passions (“the flesh”) in the Lord and with the Lord. We cannot give in to worldly thinking and temptations from the devil. Below is a quick questionnaire. If you have fallen into any of these traps “of the flesh,” please go to the sacrament of Confession (Penance) as soon as possible.

Note that some people have turned away from God trying to get superhuman knowledge or power. This is very offensive to God. To read about various New Age topics, visit: <http://www.womenofgrace.com/blog/?cat=6482>.
