

Pint with a Priest: Tuesday, August 6, at 6 p.m.

Join Fr. Peter at the Peak Restaurant in Winter Park as we talk about the value and challenges of authority and obedience. What are they? Are there limits? Why do we dislike them so much?

“The vanities of life have stolen from me the time to contemplate God.”
-Michelangelo

“The world is trying to experiment with attempting to form a civilized but non-Christian mentality. The experiment will fail; but we must be very patient in awaiting its collapse; meanwhile redeeming the time: so that the Faith may be preserved alive through the dark ages before us; to renew and rebuild civilization, and save the world from suicide.”
-T. S. Eliot in 1931

Wisdom of The Dialogue of St. Catherine

Summary of Chapter 27. Jesus is the bridge that leads to heaven. Heaven was opened with the key of Jesus' blood. The bridge has walls and a roof of mercy to keep us pilgrims safe. The Father says, “[H]oly Church is there to serve the Bread of Life and the Blood, lest the journeying pilgrims, My creatures, grow weary and faint on the way.”

Jesus is the Truth, and “with His truth He confounds and destroys the lie with which the devil deceived Eve.” That lie broke up the road to heaven, but Truth repaired it and walled it up with His blood. Those who refuse to follow Christ are attached to creatures and created things. They think they are firm, but “are in fact continually running on their end to death.” God the Father: “Either death makes them leave all behind, or by my decree created things are taken away from them.”
