

Gems of Wisdom from the Diary of Saint Faustina

838. I marvel at how many humiliations and sufferings that [Father Sopocho] accepts in this whole matter [of spreading the message of Divine Mercy]. I see this at particular times, and I support him with my unworthy prayers. Only God can give one such courage; otherwise one would give up. But I see with joy that all these adversities contribute to God's greater glory. The Lord has few such souls. O infinite eternity, you will make manifest the efforts of heroic souls, because the earth rewards their efforts with hatred and ingratitude. Such souls do not have friends; they are solitary. And in this solitude, they gain strength; they draw their strength from God alone. With humility, but also with courage, they stand firmly in the face of all the storms that beat upon them. Like high-towering oaks, they are unmoved.

Holy Sadness (from Fr. Michael)

The nightclub shooting in Orlando last weekend is an evil situation. I spent an hour in front of the Tabernacle with Jesus on Tuesday praying for the dead, the wounded, and all family members and friends. I felt the sadness of the Heart of Jesus. I asked that all those who died reconciled with God and accepted Divine Mercy before meeting Jesus face to face.

Since life is short and none of us knows our last day, we should do everything to glorify God daily and be spiritually ready to meet Jesus at any time. In general, we should think about five things. We should strive to (1) increase our faith, (2) improve our prayer lives, (3) live God's commandments, (4) go frequently to the sacraments of the Eucharist and Confession, and (5) do charitable acts to build up God's Kingdom. These five are the ordinary means to grow in holiness.

Let us Think about Our Purpose in Life

I was created for eternal happiness with God in Heaven. Everything else must take second place in my life, because if I lose Heaven, I will be losing everything. The sure guide to Heaven is God's holy Will. If I follow it in my daily life, every moment on earth will be a sure step toward the perfect happiness which my heart craves.

Fathers Day Blessing

God our Father, in Your wisdom and love You made all things. Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.
