

Gems of Wisdom from the Diary of Saint Faustina

873. [Continued from last week's bulletin] After Holy Communion, I turned my gaze with trust toward the Lord and told Him, "Jesus, I so much desire to tell You something." And the Lord looked at me with love and said, And what is it that you desire to tell Me?

"Jesus, I beg You, by the inconceivable power of Your mercy, that all the souls who die today escape the fire of hell, even if they have been the greatest sinner. Today is Friday, the memorial of Your bitter agony on the Cross; because Your mercy is inconceivable, the Angels will not be surprised at this." Jesus pressed me to His Heart and said, My beloved daughter, you have come to know well the depths of My mercy. I will do what you ask, but unite yourself continually with My agonizing Heart and make reparation to My justice. Know that you have asked Me for a great thing, but I see that this was dictated by your pure love of Me; that is why I am complying with your requests.

Hope and Healing After Abortion

Please consider attending the Rachel's Vineyard Catholic Retreat on the weekend of October 21-23. The retreat addresses the deep wounds of the soul in many women and men suffering with the psychological or spiritual pain of abortion. These, as well as, memories of condemnation, abandonment, pain, and confusion are handled with care and replaced by the healing presence, love, and mercy of Jesus Christ.

Angelology: Some Tradition

According to St. Clement, St. Gregory the Great, and Origin, every country, every city, every town and village, and even every family has a special Guardian Angel. As St. Francis Xavier preached in various towns, he invoked the Guardian Angel of every country and town. Then he would ask these Angels to protect the new congregations he had won over to the Faith with God's grace.

It is also a common belief that every altar, church, parish, diocese, and religious institution has its own Guardian Angel. Each church has a special Guardian Angel to protect it and each priest gets an extra Angel.

In paragraph 630 of the Diary of St. Faustina, God sent an angel to travel with St. Faustina on a train to a convent. She wrote: "I constantly saw him beside me when I was riding on the train. I saw an angel standing on every church we passed, but surrounded by a light which was paler than the spirit who was accompanying me on the journey, and each of these spirits who were guarding the churches bowed his head to the spirit who was near me.

"When I entered the convent gate at Warsaw, the spirit disappeared. I thanked God for His goodness, that He gives us angels for companions. Oh, how little people reflect on the fact that they always have beside them such a guest, and at the same time a witness to everything! Remember, sinners, that you likewise have a witness to all your deeds."
