Wisdom of St. Catherine of Siena Coming at You

We have been posting quotes from the Diary of St. Faustina for over six years in the bulletins. We will begin to give you summaries from the Dialogue of St. Catherine in the near future. Here are some quick facts:

-Born in 1347; died in-1380; 25th child of a wool dyer in Northern Italy. She began having mystical experiences at age 6. She saw Guardian Angels.

-At 16, she became a third order Dominican

-She persuaded the pope to go back to Rome from Avignon in 1377.

-In 1375, Our Lord gave her the stigmata invisibly, which appeared visible after her death. Her body was found incorrupt in 1430.

MTYR (More Than You Realize) Do you know Him?? Do you really know Him? Jesus wants you to get to know Him. Advent is the perfect time to purposefully get to know Jesus. Read the Gospels. Listen for Jesus’s voice. Do a daily Advent devotional. As you get to know Jesus, implant joy onto your heart and you will be transformed into MTYR, you express this amazing gift of love to all.
