

A Note from the Fr. Peter

I think we are as close to normal as we can reasonably expect. We have resumed the weekly bulletin. Our Mass schedule is close to normal and we have capacity for most of our parishioners to return to Mass. There is still as risk of contacting the virus, so those who are at a higher risk from the virus are encouraged to remain home. We are cleaning the churches between Masses, paused our singing, and reduced the amount of touchable surfaces, however there are still real risks.

We ask you to help take care of your brothers and sisters. If you have any symptoms of illness, please stay home. While in the churches, and any other public places, please wear a mask. This has become a hot topic for some reason. It may end up that masks don't help much. However, multiple studies coming out suggest that they can help in a significant way. It is an easy thing to do as an act of charity toward our neighbor. For those times when it gets very irritating, think of it as a small act of mortification!

We will keep the current weekend Mass schedule for the time being and ask that you continue to sign up. A link can be found on our website at www.grandcatholic.com

Our weekday Masses are typical and you don't need to sign up to attend. Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays are fixed each week. Thursdays and Fridays vary and will be announced via Flocknote and on our bulletin.

We have added 2 Spanish Masses and have been pleased with the turnout. Tuesdays at 7 pm at OLS and Fridays at 7 pm at StP. We will continue these at least through the summer.

Confession is available 30 minutes before weekend Masses and evening weekday Masses. It is also available after morning weekday Masses.

Landscape Project at Our Lady of the Snow

You may have heard us talk about some water that seeps into the basement here. The water causes glue to leak between the tiles and warps the tiles. Our first step to fix this will be to regrade the ground along the side of the building to help drainage. We will be explaining more and asking for help with this in coming weeks.
