

From the Pastor

Next weekend Fr. Brady Wagner will be filling in at some of the Masses. He is the director of the Spirituality Year at St. John Vianney Seminary in Denver.

Thursday Holy Hour

On Thursdays when we do not have Family Religious Education we have a Holy Hour at Our Lady of the Snow starting at 7:00 p.m. All are invited. We begin with the Rosary in Spanish then have a period of silent prayer. Guides for non-Spanish speakers are available. Think about learning the Rosary in Spanish and praying it together.

Lectio Divina

Most Wednesdays in Grand Lake at St. Anne's from 2:00 to 3:00pm. Break open and pray with the Word from the next Sunday's gospel. Join the St Anne Lectio Divina group on Flocknote to receive notices of the next session.

"God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.

He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments.

Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about."
— St. John Henry Newman
