The Novena to the Divine Mercy Begins on Good

Friday, April 2

Jesus: My great delight is to unite Myself with souls... When I come to a human heart in Holy Communion, My hands are full of all kinds of graces which I want to give to the soul. -Diary, 1385

The Novena to the Divine Mercy is a great prayer to ask for the salvation of all people. It has a plenary indulgence attached to it. You may ask God to apply the plenary indulgence to a soul in purgatory. To observe the Feast of Mercy well, which is the Sunday after Easter, and to gain a plenary indulgence, we should:

1) Celebrate the Feast on Divine Mercy Sunday, 2) venerate the Image of the Divine Mercy [perform some act or make some gesture of deep religious respect toward it, because it represents our Most Merciful Savior], 3) be merciful to others, through our actions, words, and prayers on their behalf, 4) place our complete trust in Jesus, 5) have the intention of gaining a plenary indulgence, 6) pray the novena that follows, 7) detach ourselves from all sin, 7) go to Confession, preferably before the Feast [we may go within 20 days before or after the Feast, according to previously issued norms for plenary indulgences], 8) pray an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be for the intentions of Pope Francis, and 9) receive Holy Communion on the day of the Feast.

The novena prayer can be found in a small red pamphlet at the doors of the churches.

Divine Mercy Celebrations On Sunday, April 11

There will be a Holy Hour with Confession available.

-St. Peter. 8:45 a.m., before the 10 a.m. Mass.

-Our Lady of the Snow. 3 p.m. Both priests are available to hear confessions.

Steubenville of the Rockies,

The annual conference for High School Youth is scheduled to restart this summer the weekend of July 2-4. If you are interested we need you to contact Fr. Peter by March 28. We need to determine if there is enough interest to send a group.

Increased Attendance and Singing Returning

As the rate of spread of the virus has gone down significantly, we will be increasing the attendance at most of our churches. We will have singing at the Holy Triduum services this week. Also, we will be phasing in singing at Masses in the coming weeks.
