

Archbishop's Catholic Appeal

Let's imitate the virtues of St. Joseph during this year of the patron saint of our universal Church. Gifts to the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal are immediately invested in works of mercy, education, and charity. Please visit www.archden.org/givetoday or call 303-867-0614.

Thursday Holy Hour

On Thursdays when we do not have Family Religious Education (like this week) we have a Holy Hour at Our Lady of the Snow starting at 7:00 p.m. All are invited. We begin with the Rosary in Spanish then have a period of silent prayer. Guides for non-Spanish speakers are available. Think about learning the Rosary in Spanish and praying it together.

There are no ordinary people.

You have never talked to a mere mortal. Nations, cultures, arts, civilization—these are mortal, and their life is to ours as the life of a gnat.

But it is immortals whom we joke with, work with, marry, snub, and exploit—immortal horrors or everlasting splendors. This does not mean that we are to be perpetually solemn. We must play.

But our merriment must be of that kind (and it is, in fact, the merriest kind) which exists between people who have, from the outset, taken each other seriously—no flippancy, no superiority, no presumption.

And our charity must be real and costly love, with deep feeling for the sins in spite of which we love the sinner—no mere tolerance or indulgence which parodies love as flippancy parodies merriment.

Next to the Blessed Sacrament itself, your neighbor is the holiest object presented to your senses.

—C. S. Lewis, The Weight of Glory

Encounter the Risen Jesus

This week marks the mid-point of Archbishop Aquila's Encounter with the Risen Christ Easter series, and this week's reflection on John 15 is especially fitting as the center of this journey of prayer. The verses contained therein are meant to be the standard which will lead the Archdiocese of Denver into mission; they have been a central theme of Archbishop Aquila's time as archbishop of Denver and remain his core conviction in discerning how to build a culture of apostolic mission.
