

From the Pastor

Happy Mothers' Day! This Sunday we celebrate one of God's greatest gifts to us, our own mothers. In the Gospel for the day we hear Jesus say "This is my commandment: love one another as I love you." Our first teachers of this sacrificial love comes from our mothers. We thank God for them!

Note: our Tuesday morning Mass is canceled this week.

Baby Bottle Drive for the Pregnancy Resource Center

This Mothers' Day we will start our baby bottle change drive. Pick up your bottle after Mass and collect your loose change. Bring it back on Father's Day or when you fill it up. All of us contributing a bit of loose change will bring in thousands of dollars in total.

Reencounter the Real Presence: Mass dispensation to be lifted on Pentecost

Watching Mass from our couch may be cozy and convenient, but it's not nearly as good as the real thing. At Mass, we experience not only the real presence of our brothers and sisters who are there worshipping alongside us, but also the Real Presence of Christ himself in the Eucharist. The Screwtape Letters Book Study

Join Fr. Peter in reading and discussing The Screwtape Letters by C. S. Lewis. It is an imaginary collection of letters between an experienced devil, Screwtape, and his nephew Wormwood, who's new to the tempting scene. They are creative, ironic, and a sort of advice in reverse.

Starting May 23 at OLS after the 9:30 Mass and every other Sunday after. Used copies found online start at $7.

Encounter the Risen Jesus

In Week 5 of Archbishop Aquila's Encounter with the Risen Christ Easter series, we look to the perplexing yet profound words of Jesus in John 16. "I tell you the truth, it is better for you that I go," he tells his apostles. How can this be? Well, this statement has a punchline, and it's one that completes Jesus' mission.
