

From the Pastor

The fiscal year 2020 financial reports for St. Anne Parish and Missions are included in the bulletin. Similar reports for St. Peter and St. Ignatius will be available next week.

Dear Parishioners, Please join us the weekend of September 18, 2021 to hear Rev. Thomas W. Falkenthal speak at all the services about a ministry providing direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

Father Falkenthal will share personal witness about Food For The Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

Fr. Falkenthal was ordained for the Archdiocese of Chicago in 1975. After serving parishes in Chicago, he entered the U.S. Navy as Commander, Chaplain Corps. He served overseas and retired after 24 years of active duty before joining Food For The Poor.

Because the visiting priest is elderly, Food for the Poor asks that all of us wear masks at the Masses. This is an act of charity for a priest coming in from Florida to help us while Fr. Mathias is away. Please help me make him feel comfortable while he is here.

Consecration to St Joseph

St Anne Parish will be hosting a 6 week retreat on "Consecration to St Joseph" every Wednesday at 2pm - 3:30pm from September 29 to November 1. Since this is the year of St Joseph we are going to dive deeper into his life and role in the church. Purchase your book beforehand, Consecration to St Joseph by Donald Calloway, MIC, from Amazon. Call Jeri Moat at 970-531-8303 to get more information and sign up.

What Does the Bible Say About Good Women?

Long, long ago, in a kingdom far away – a queen composed an incredible list for her son, to help him identify character qualities to look for as he sought to find a wife!

We are going to unpack these and make them relevant to our day and time – to help all women grow into what they can be by learning these exciting principles!

Join Lynn Grandon in reflecting on this question. All women, teens and up, are invited. 6 p.m. Tuesday, September 21 at Our Lady of the Snow.
