

From the Pastor

Last week we raised $2,961 for the people in Haiti after they suffered multiple natural disasters. We also raised $2,184 for retired priests of the Archdiocese. Thank you to all who generously contributed!

Due to the rise in COVID rates, and an outbreak at a church in Grand County, we will skip the sign of peace for now. We pray the infection rates drop for good.

Hike Together to Fight Suicide

Grand County mental health care providers have come together to bring a community suicide prevention walk called the "You Are Not Alone" hike. The core of the hike is to create a movement to give people the courage to open-up about their own struggle or loss and to be the platform to change our cultural approach to mental health. Attendance is free and open for anyone to join. Sunday, September 12, 2-5 p.m. Find out more here: <https://www.givesignup.org/Race/CO/Granby/SuicidePreventionHike>

What Does the Bible Say About Good Women?

Long, long ago, in a kingdom far away – a queen composed an incredible list for her son, to help him identify character qualities to look for as he sought to find a wife!

We are going to unpack these and make them relevant to our day and time – to help all women grow into what they can be by learning these exciting principles!

Join Lynn Grandon in reflecting on this question. All women, teens and up, are invited. 6 p.m. Tuesday, September 21 at Our Lady of the Snow.
