

From the Pastor

As we continue to develop our Family Religious Education in Granby we hope to include more of our parishioners. I desire our church community to become more like the family of God that we are meant to be. This Sunday, after the 9:30 a.m. Mass, all are invited for donuts and then a guided tour of the church building.

Do you know why the baptismal font is at the entrance to the church, or why it has 8 sides? Have you wondered about the meaning of the different colors the priest wears throughout the year? Do you have questions of your own about the church or the liturgy? All are welcome!

Next Sunday, Oct 10, our topic will be Who is God? All are welcome to join us.

Family Religious Education

All families are invited to join us for faith formation.

St. Francis of Assisi

Every time children are preparing for Confirmation, we have asked the children to select a patron saint. One of the most popular saints is St. Francis. Why do many children pick him? Because he loved animals. But there is so much more about this great saint!

This Monday, October 4, the Church celebrates the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi. There is lots of great material on Formed.org about the saint. Consider the following:

- Two movies you can stream online: Saint Francis and Clare and Francis.
- Saint Francis of Assisi, a docu-drama (also in Spanish).
- The Birth of the Franciscans 3 short videos about three important followers of St. Francis.
- Francis, an animated movie for children.
- The Joyful Beggar, A novel about St. Francis of Assisi
- Brother Francis: The Barefoot Saint of Assisi An audio drama. (It is very well made.)
- St. Francis of Assisi, A shorter audio book.

If you have not signed up for Formed.org yet, go to Grandcatholic.formed.org and fill out a bit of information. Then you can go straight to Formed.org and check out a large library of great Catholic content. Let us know if you have any issues.
