Think Like an Apostle:

Join the Apostolic Mindset Lenten Challenge

Like the apostles before us, the Church is called to be bold in this apostolic age. To do this, we must start thinking like the apostles did and heeding our own call as Christ's apostles who are living today.

This Lent, we challenge you to be more intentional about putting on an apostolic mindset by taking up the following practices during each of the five weeks of the Lenten season. Each week will be focused on one of the five characteristics of an apostolic mindset and contains practices meant to bring you more deeply into that characteristic and apply it to your own life.

Week 1 (March 6-12): Unique Calling from the Father

Memory Verse:

But now thus says the Lord, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine." (Isaiah 43:1)

Challenges

- Discern and cultivate your gifts and talents using a temperament assessment tool
- Volunteer at your parish
- Use your gifts to help one person
- Make a "joy" list: Write down five things that bring you joy; start a gratitude practice
- Do a nightly examen – reflect on the day and meditate on where God was present
