

Denver Catholic Biblical School Graduates

Our parishes celebrate and thank 7 of our parishioners for graduating from the Denver Catholic Biblical School. This program is a 4-year course of in-depth study of Sacred Scripture. Typically this is a weekly class, but our students began their first years by carpooling monthly to Idaho Springs for "Super Saturdays" packed with multiple classes. Since the pandemic they have been able to attend classes online. Feel free to talk to them about their experience or visit sjvlaydivision.org for more information.

Our graduates:

Jan Robar, Valerie Steineck, Dollie Darrah, Mary Pat Himes, Louise Kerstiens, Jan Derks, Victor Derks

St. Ignatius of Loyola in Walden

From 1907 until 1944 Walden was mostly considered a mission of the Steamboat Springs parish. In 1946 Fr. Barry was assigned to it, along with the other churches in Grand County. Since the roads were frequently bad in the winter he would usually go during the warmer months. During the winter Jesuit priests from Regis College would drive there by way of Laramie.

Before the church was built Masses were sometimes said in Walden's town hall. Fund raising for the church began in 1949. The first Mass in the new church was on Dec 9, 1950. The second was 3 months later due to the weather. Archbishop Vehr dedicated St. Ignatius Church on June 25, 1951. St. Ignatius was the founder of the Jesuit religious order.

This community has been served by clergy from Steamboat Springs, Silverthorne, Kremmling, and Granby over the years.
