

Mass Schedule Updates

This Wednesday we will not have morning Mass at St. Bernard. All of the priests of the Western Slope will be meeting with Archbishop Aquila that morning.

The Saturday evening Mass at St. Bernard returns next weekend for the summer season. This 5:30 p.m. Mass will continue through Labor Day weekend.

Parish Mission - The Eucharist and Spousal Love

The Bible begins with marriage (that of Adam and Eve) and it ends with marriage (the wedding feast of the Lamb in Revelation). It is good for us to look at the Eucharist that we receive at Mass through the lens of marriage.

June 2 & 3 our parish mission will cover both of these topics. The Eucharistic banquet that we share at each Mass is also the great wedding feast of the Lamb - Jesus. Our union with Jesus in the Eucharist is most truly and fully a marriage. Since the Eucharist is a wedding feast, the spousal imagery of the scriptures, which portray a bridegroom (God) and his bride (us), becomes the perfect language of love to describe our bond with Christ our Bridegroom.

This parish mission will be led by Fr. Greg Cleveland, OMV. No registration is required for the talks (but read on for something that you should register for.)

Special Friday Night Banquet!

To prepare ourselves to rejoice in the great banquet that our Lord has invited us to, we invite you to a banquet to begin our Parish Mission Friday night at 5:30. Free! but registration is required by Tuesday, May 30. Contact the office at 970-887-0032 or admin@grandcatholic.com Limited spots are available. A multi-course meal will be provided.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Every man experiences evil around him and within himself. This experience makes itself felt in the relationships between man and woman. Their union has always been threatened by discord, a spirit of domination, infidelity, jealousy, and conflicts that can escalate into hatred and separation. This disorder can manifest itself more or less acutely, and can be more or less overcome according to the circumstances of cultures, eras, and individuals, but it does seem to have a universal character.

According to faith the disorder we notice so painfully does not stem from the nature of man and woman, nor from the nature of their relations, but from sin. As a break with God, the first sin had for its first consequence the rupture of the original communion between man and woman. Their relations were distorted by mutual recriminations; their mutual attraction, the Creator's own gift, changed into a relationship of domination and lust; and the beautiful vocation of man and woman to be fruitful, multiply, and subdue the earth was burdened by the pain of childbirth and the toil of work.

Nevertheless, the order of creation persists, though seriously disturbed. To heal the wounds of sin, man and woman need the help of the grace that God in his infinite mercy never refuses them. [99] Without his help man and woman cannot achieve the union of their lives for which God created them "in the beginning."
