Annual Seminarian Appeal

Priests are irreplaceable in the life of our Church and our seminarians are essential to our future spiritual life and our eternal life in the Eucharist. Let's not let one priestly vocation go unfulfilled. Please make a gift to the Annual Seminaries' Appeal by visiting archden.org/futurepriests to donate today. Thank you!

Eucharistic Revival and 24-Hours Adoration

You are invited to begin Advent with 24 hours of Eucharistic Adoration. Advent is a time of prayerful preparation and patient, attentive waiting. Jesus asked his Apostles to spend an hour with him before his Passion. We can do the same with our Lord at Our Lady of the Snow, beginning the evening of Dec. 2 and ending the evening of Dec 3. Sign up for an hour on sheets at the back of our churches.

What Goes into Making Good Moral Decisions?

Our Archbishop released a letter well worth reading concerning recreational marijuana and other drugs. It is a great example of how we can examine any moral issue. Catholic morality begins by looking at what humans are and what they are meant to be. We can then see whether actions correspond to these realities.

Internet & Social Media Safety

Author and former parishioner John DiGirolamo will be doing a presentation after the 9:30 mass on Sunday December 3 at Our Lady of the Snow, which is also donut Sunday. John will be discussing his new book, It's Not About the Predator: A Parent's Guide to Internet & Social Media Safety. The topics included in the 45-minute discussion will cover how online predators go after children and what parents and grandparents need to know. Also included will be specific common-sense tips to keep your child safe. John will also include a section about how scammers go after the elderly.

A PASTORAL LETTER BY ARCHBISHOP SAMUEL J. AQUILA, S.T.L.

That They Might Have Life

Read Archbishop Aquila's latest Pastoral Letter. It boldly addresses the detrimental impact of recreational marijuana and other drug use on individuals, families, and society at large.
