

Dying Well Conference

Thank you to all the people who helped with our End-of-Life Conference last Sunday, especially to the many who helped provide lunch. We had about 80 people total attend! Some of the topics addressed will be showing up in future bulletins and Flocknote messages. We will also have packets of information at our different churches.

Spanish Retreat Next Weekend

Our Spanish community will be having a retreat March 29 and 30 in Granby. Please pray for them, that they all receive great graces from God our Father, and that the community grows in charity and faith.

Help Wanted

We are looking to hire a part-time facilities manager who can help us with managing and maintaining our five churches. This position would have variable hours, depending on need, likely averaging 5-8 hours a week. Some ability to do small repairs is needed. At times they will coordinate with and monitor contractors and volunteers for other repairs. Practicing Catholic. Please contact one of the priests if interested.
