

A Note from the Pastor

This weekend the official priest assignments for the Archdiocese of Denver are due to be released. In them will be the names of both Fr. Peter and Fr. Mathias. I will be moving to a new parish in Arvada, the Shrine of St. Anne. Fr. Mathias will become the administrator (basically pastor) of the churches in Grand and Jackson Counties. This will take place at the end of June. A new assistant priest is from outside the Archdiocese and will be coming in July. I don't know much about him other than he is bilingual.

I have absolutely loved my 8 years serving at our 5 little churches. I was not expecting to get the call about moving - I had one more year left in my assignment - but I have peace that it is part of God's good plan.

The next 2 months will be very busy, as I am trying to finish up a number of projects, train and pass on a number of things that I was responsible for, bring on a new facilities manager, and more. Prayers for both of us are very appreciated as we are preparing for our new assignments. Please, no gifts. Part of the work I need to do is pack up far too much stuff that I have accumulated over the years.

Save the Date - Denver Jubilee Pilgrimage

Join our Grand Catholic Pilgrimage to the Cathedral Basilica of the Immaculate Conception and the Christ the King Chapel at St. John Vianney Seminary, both in Denver. On Saturday May 24, we will leave Granby at 7:00 am and arrive at the Cathedral for a 9:00 am rosary. Later, we will celebrate Mass at the seminary chapel and have lunch. Both buildings are among the most beautiful churches in the country. Our cathedral has many outstanding stained-glass windows and is the mother church of our archdiocese. The seminary chapel has some of the most intricate architecture and statues. Stay tuned, more information to come.

Pray for our Confirmation Candidates

Please pray for our parishioners who will be receiving their sacraments on May 4th (at St. Peter's Church) and May 11th (at OLS). Candidates will receive the sacraments of confirmation and holy Communion.
